A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T S

Grateful acknowledgement is here made to all those persons who in a multitude of ways so generously assisted the author--now knowingly, now unknowingly--in bringing into existence the present work.

Foremost among them is Donald Walter Powell, the manifestations of whose untiring efforts in gathering and synthesizing these notes for a family history are found on virtually every page of "Preparatory Notes for a Work to be Entitled WALTER SILAS POWELL AND HELEN LOOMIS RUSSELL: THEIR ANCESTORS, THEIR DESCENDANTS."

For having preserved and made available to the author large quantities of family records and artifacts and/or for having helped gather the data that constitute the foundation upon which the author erected the present synthesis, the author, be it known, is very much indebted to the following persons: Olwen V. Ruch Adler, Maude C. Squire Brechtel, Edith Gardner, the late Vivian Hood Hughes, Elizabeth A. Winter Montello, Ann Marie Swindlehurst Powell, Helen Loomis Russell Powell, Russell Thomas Powell, Walter Silas Powell, Laura A. Loomis Rude, Gertrude Gardner Synder, Ruth O. Powell Swain, Marian R. Fletcher Swindlehurst, Mary Phillips Thompson, Alice Mae Williams, Edna L. Munson Wiltz, Ellen Josephine Windsor, Margaret Louise Winter, and Arthur Zimmerman.

The author, finally, is immeasurably indebted to all previous and present-day family historians, whose passion, initiative and patience have resulted in published and/or unpublished works that are primarily or secondarily about Walter Silas Powell and Helen Loomis Russell or their ancestors. They have my enormous respect and appreciation, and they and their works are acknowledged not only in the Bibliography but also throughout the present work.

In the period 12-01-1976--05-02-1979, the author wrote or received no less than 167 letters that pertain to either Volume I or Volume II of "Preparatory Notes for a Work to be Entitled Walter Silas Powell and Helen Loomis Russell: Their Ancestors, Their Descendants." The index to those letters is given herein in Appendix IV (pp. 3914.1 - 3927). The author is very much indebted to the correspondents in question, many of whom are named in the "Acknowledgements" on the preceding page, and is pleased to here and now publicly say "thank you" to those correspondents for having contributed to--and enriched--the present work.

I dedicate Volume I of this work in loving memory to

both of whose lives, interest in and works on the family history are for me a continual source of inspiration.

F O R E W O R D

Volume I of "Preparatory Notes for a Work to be Entitled WALTER SILAS POWELL and HELEN LOOMIS RUSSELL: THEIR ANCESTORS, THEIR DESCENDANTS" is, as the title clearly indicates, a work-in-progress which, for two reasons, the author has chosen to publish at this time: (1) the manuscript has become so large as to be unwieldy: as a consequence, it is necessary for the author to have a fair copy of that information that has already been gathered and synthesized in order to continue his genealogical research (2) it is hoped that the publication of these notes will make it possible for the author to correct errors and supply omissions in these notes prior to the publication of the completed work.

Using his own copy of these preparatory notes (copy number one of the first edition of the present work), then, the author will continue his genealogical work--making every effort, as he transforms this incomplete and imperfect biographical work into a completed work, to correct all errors and supply all omissions herein. In order to do so, the author needs the help of all those persons who, in whole or in part, read or refer to this work-in-progress.

To that effect, if as you read or refer to the present work, any of the information stated herein strikes you as inaccurate or questionable, please note on the page in question not only why, in your opinion, such information is inaccurate or questionable, but also how the passage in question should read. Indicate as well, the date on which you emended the text, and initial your correction.

To that effect, if as you read or refer to the present work, you are able to supply any information about any of those persons or events described or referred to herein that should be included in this work, please write that information on the page in question. Indicate as well, the date on which you added to the text, and initial your addition.

To that effect, if as you read or refer to the present work, you discover any typographical, grammatical or syntactical errors, please circle or otherwise make known those errors so that they may be corrected and eliminated from the completed work. [The reader will note (1) that more than one kind of type has been used in setting into type the text of the manuscript (2) that some "cutting and pasting" has been done in preparing the typescript of the present work for publication. As regrettable as those typographical and production (as well as other) inconsistencies and imperfections in the present work might be, the author nevertheless came to the conclusion that the printed pages of the typescript of these preparatory notes are highly readable, and that to reset the type of the text of the entire manuscript of the present work prior to publishing these notes would not, therefore, be necessary.]

One final word: The greater the participation of all those persons who may read or refer to the present work (referred to herein as SRP), it goes not without saying, the greater will be the value, when published in its completed form, of WALTER SILAS POWELL and HELEN LOOMIS RUSSELL: THEIR ANCESTORS, THEIR DESCENDANTS, not only for us, the living, but also for all those persons who in the future, whether direct descendants of Walter Silas Powell and Helen Loomis Russell or not, may read or refer to that which we have herein put forth.

"Books are the treasured wealth of the world and the fit inheritance of generations and nations. Books, the oldest and the best, stand naturally and rightfully on the shelves of every cottage. They have no cause of their own to plead, but while they enlighten and sustain the reader his common sense will not refuse them. Their authors are a natural and irresistible aristocracy in every society, and more than kings and emperors, exert an influence on mankind."

Henry David Thoreau, WALDEN, Chapter III
